GEORGE P. CRONK GRAND EX-ALTED RULER.

Result of the Election of Officers Yesterday Afternoon-The Next Meeting.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, August 13 .-The features of today, the second of the annual Elks' reunion, will be the parade of uniformed bodies of Elks in competitive prize drill and the selection of the place for the next annual reunion. For the competitive drill, $1,750 in prizes has been offered, the determining points being general appearance and bearing, beauty and originality of costumes, and number in line. Special prizes are also offered for blue flame, throwing its $ elected grand leading knight, and Judge J. C. Pickens of Denver was elected grand loyal knight, all by acciamation at the election last evening.

George P. Cronk was born in the city of Savannah, Ga., October 21, 1862, from which place he moved at an early age to the city of New York, where his early life was passed. He was educated in the schools of that city and Brooklyn. At the age of eighteen he moved to Iowa, and in 1885 went to Omaha, where he engaged in the coal business with C. B. Havens & Co., with whom he is still engaged in the carried by the government and the name changed to Cheyenne, then back to Bristol and finally to Jacob Kuper.

Mr. Cronk has been frequently solicited to accept positions of public trust, all of which he has declined, preferring to remain in the private walks of life, but at the same time always identified with and interested in organizations which have in view the

He has been prominent in the lodge of Elks from the time he became a member; he was twice elected grand ruler of Omaha Lodge, No. 39. He served three terms as district deputy for the state of Nebraska. He was selected as one of the committee on grievances in the Grand Lodge, also one of the committee on returns and creden-tials; was twice elected grand trustee, and two years appointed as one of the committee of the Elks' Home, and is a mem-ber of that committee at the present time. The position of grand exalted ruler was not sought by Mr. Cronk. He was solicited by many of the most prominent men in the order to permit the use of his name in connection with this office, and it was because of their earnest solicitations that he finally became a candidate.

MERCHANT DISAPPEARS.

Leaves a Note Informing His Wife He Has Gone West.

Special Dispatch to The Evening Star. LAUREL, Md., August 13.-A. B. Wolf, a merchant, left his place of business here Monday morning, presumably to go to Savage, a small town about three miles distant from Laurel, since which time he has not communicated with his family, and his whereabouts are unknown to his friends here. There was nothing in his manner prior to his departure to indicate that he contemplated desertion of his family, and his wife states that he had always seemed to be cheerful, and did not appear to be brooding over any difficulty. There were no family troubles, Mrs. Wolf stating that her husband had always treated her with kindness, and that his disappearance could

Mrs. Wolf stated that to her knowledge the business affairs of her husband were in excellent shape, and that the custom of his place was increasing. Wolf moved to Laurel early last fall and engaged in a general merchandise business.

Mrs. Wolf has two children to provide for, one a girl thirteen years old, Mr. Wolf's daughter by a former wife, and her little boy, aged four years. Mrs. Wolf is in a very nervous condition as the result of her husband's desertion.

BUSY DAY FOR PYTHIANS.

Review of Uniform Rank and Many Routine Meetings.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 13.-This was another busy day for the Knights of Pythias. At 9 a.m. the Pythian sisterhood held its second session at Elks' Hall. There was a review of the uniformed rank and competitive drills in the pavilion at 9:30 a.m., and at the same hour the Supreme Lodge convened at the Palace Hotel. The Imperial Palace of the Knights of Khorassan held a session at Pythian Castle at 10 a.m., and the supreme temple of the Rathbone Sisters assembled at Native Sons' Hall at the same time. The chief event of the day was the grand parade, which moved at 3 p.m. and traversed the principal streets of the city. Twenty-five brigades of the uniform rank and thousands of other knights were in line.

In the evening there will be a grand musical concert in the payllion and a banquet to the visiting Rathbone Sisters.

Defeats Huntington in Semi-Finals.

BIG TENNIS TOURNEY

CLOSELY CONTESTED GAME AT SOUTHAMPTON, L. I.

H. L. Doherty Defeated George Atterbury - Summaries of the Morning Play.

SOUTHAMPTON, L. I., August 13.-Good weather conditions prevailed today for the second day's play in the lawn tennis tournament for the Long Island championship. The match of the morning which attracted the greatest interest was that between the former English champion, R. F. Doherty, and Bob Huntington, the western player, in the semi-final round of the championship

At the last moment Malcolm D. Whitman defaulted in the singles and George Atterbury moved up to meet H. L. Doherty, the present champion of all England. The committee planned to start the men's championship doubles this morning. Wm. A. Larned, and Malcolm D. Whitman are paired, and will probably meet the Doherty brothers on their way through the field. The consolation was also put under way this morning, and the mixed doubles, in which many of the society women are playing, were continued.

Conditions All Auspicious. The fine weather and perfect condition of the courts greatly added to the splendid work of the players. As the Doherty | % brothers were to play, all of the tennis following was on hand early. The matches were for the remaining places in the semifinal round and developed the most exciting sport yet witnessed in the progress of the

As was expected, both of the Dohertys won their brackets in the semi-final round of the championship singles, R. F. Doherty winning from Bob Huntington in two sets by a close score, while H. L. Doherty de-feated George Atterbury with the greatest ease. The result brings R. F. Doherty and William A. Larned together in the top half of the semi-finals, and the prospect of this match is creating much interest, as it is hoped that the American champion will be able to redeem himself from the defeat he suffered last week at the international meeting.

On the lower brackets are Dr. Joshua Pim and H. L. Doherty. The experts hope that Larned will be able to come through to the finals so as to meet the English champion here. Bob Huntington took the service in the opening game. He was playing in the best of form and captured the first game by putting some pretty lobbs over the Briton's head that landed just inside the base line of the court. The Englishman, however, gave the veteran American a taste of his ability at passing, and in this manner gained the second and third games. Then Hunt-ington began his successful lobbing again, and as Doherty was weak on his overhead strokes the fifth and sixth games went to the American player in rather easy fashion.

Crowd Rooted for Huntington.

This gave Huntington the lead on games at 3-2, and the crowd "rooted" an upset and an English defeat. Their jubilation was short lived, for Doherty took the next 3 Yard-Wide Cambric. game at love and the following after the ? points had once gone to deuce. Huntington made a strong stand in the ninth game, in which he was very steady in the rallies. He took the game, but lost the set at 6-4. In the next set the Englishman's steadiness took the first and second games, as his returns were either good for passes or were so cleverly placed that the ball cut the side lines of Huntington's court. Doherty went to the front rapidly and led at 4-2 on the games. At this juncture Huntington put on an extra spurt and by sheer force of his drives captured the seventh and eighth games, tieing the score at 4 games all. In the ninth game the points went to deuce, and once Huntington was within a stroke of taking it. He was unheaded English player, however, and lost the game and the set as before at 6-4. The score, by points in games, follows:

First set: R. F. Doherty.....3 4 5 2 2 4 5 4 4 4-37-6 3 R. F. Doherty.....4 4 8 2 5 5 1 2 7 4-37-6

STRIKE OF SHORT DURATION.

Trolley Line Employes at Yonkers Out Three Hours.

YONKERS, N. Y., August 13 .- The employes of the Union Trolley Company struck again today, but the strike, like that of last Saturday, was of short duration. The stes, white or black stitchmen went out today because they had received no word from the company's officies relative to demands made by them last week. The strike seems, however, to have been due to a misunderstanding, for when President Maher of the company had been informed of the situation he said the demands of the men had been acceded to and an agreement in due form would be given to the employes this afternoon. This explanation satisfied the men and they returned to work after having been out about three hours.

The strike last week was because of the prospective removal of a superintendent who was popular with the employes. At the same time a demand was made for a working day of ten hours at 20 cents an hour instead of 18 cents an hour for an eleven-hour day that they had been receiv-ing. After being out about two hours the men returned to work with the under-standing that their demands would be con-

DETECTIVES GET CONFESSION. Clever Scheme Resulted in Detection of a Murderer.

CLEVELAND, August 13.-Mrs. Ignatz Wiurchowski has made a written confession to the police that the man who shot and killed her husband Sunday night was Charles Janaski, a former boarder at the Wiurchowski home, and who is alleged to he infatuated with Mrs. Wiurchowski.

Mrs. Wiurchowski and her husband wer on their way home late Sunday night, when man rushed from the bushes and killed Wiurchowski instantly.
Mrs. Wiurchowski told the police that it was a robber that committed the crime. Since the commission of the murder Mrs. Winrchowski and Janaski have been winchowski and Janaski have peen under arrest. Last night two of the city detectives went through the crime in mimic as nearly as possible from Mrs. Winchowski's description. One detective acted as escort tailing a loss of $115,000.
